Description

The EVAN apron is made of high quality elastomer, a material that guarantees exceptional resistance. This apron is waterproof and highly resistant to animal fats, blood and common cleaning products.

This stain resistant apron has been designed with a clean and professional look, without pockets. This not only provides an elegant aesthetic, but also makes it easy to clean and maintain.

The adjustable harness allows for a custom fit, adapting to your body ergonomically. This design ensures that the apron stays in place, regardless of working conditions.
