Description

The women's trousers with pockets offer a perfect mid-rise fit that combines comfort and style in a versatile design that adapts to a variety of personal preferences and styles.

These trousers are made of TECNO 96%PES 4%EA 215gr/m². This high quality material blend provides a better fit that enhances and shapes the body in an exceptional way, while ensuring a durable, stain-resistant and easy to iron garment.

Two pockets on the sides of the trousers offer additional functionality, giving you space to conveniently carry small personal items or work tools.

Belt loops at the waist allow you to customize your look and provide the option of using belts for optimal fit and additional comfort.

The button and zip at the front of the trousers provide a secure and stylish fastening, making the dressing process easy and ensuring that your uniform stays in place all day long.

The absence of darts at the front contributes to a polished and smart appearance.

The fabric of these trousers is highly stain resistant, making it easy to clean up minor spills and helping to maintain a professional image at all times.
