Description

The TRIVIAL women's pants with pockets are the perfect choice for those seeking a balance between modern style and comfort. Featuring a fitted and slim cut that enhances the figure, combined with a mid-rise waist for a contemporary look and unmatched comfort.

Made from TRIVIAL fabric, a blend of 77% polyester, 20% viscose, and 3% elastane, these pants ensure greater freedom of movement and a soft touch. Additionally, their composition provides wrinkle resistance and ease of ironing, ensuring you always look impeccable with minimal effort.

The two French-style side pockets offer a practical solution, and the absence of front pleats contributes to a polished and modern appearance, perfect for any professional setting.

Belt loops at the waist allow for the use of belts for optimal fit and additional comfort. This detail not only enhances the functionality of the pants but also adds a touch of personalized style.

Versatile and suitable for a wide variety of work environments, these pants are ideal for bars, restaurants, cafes, music bands, reception, transportation, offices, and general retail.
