Description

The women's Chino trousers in EYE OF PERDIZE feature a semi-fitted design and a mid-rise waist, offering a modern and versatile look that suits a variety of figures. This ensures that professionals look good and feel comfortable in their work environment.

These trousers are made from high quality Partridge Eye (255gr/m²), composed of 63% cotton, 35% polyester and 2% spandex. This material provides comfort, durability and a pleasant stretch, allowing for greater freedom of movement during the working day.

The two french pockets on the front of the garment offer functionality and allow professionals to carry small personal items or work tools in a convenient and accessible way.

The two welt pockets on the back complete the stylish and functional design of the trousers, providing additional storage space for work necessities.

The slim fit of the trousers creates a modern, streamlined look, ensuring that professionals look professional and fashionable.

These trousers are especially suitable for professional uniforms in a variety of fields, including waitresses in bars, restaurants and cafes, reception, transport, offices and general retail.
