Description

The Annalisa shirt is a garment designed for women who seek a balance between elegance and functionality in their professional environment. With a slim fit, it highlights the silhouette without compromising comfort, providing a flattering and sophisticated fit.

Made from 100 gsm striped poplin (55% polyester, 45% cotton), this shirt is lightweight, breathable and easy to maintain, ideal for long working days. The buttoned shirt collar adds a classic, professional touch, while the long sleeves with slit and placket, together with the button at the cuff, allow for a comfortable and functional fit. The darts on the chest and back ensure a well-defined structure.

Available in light blue stripe and blue-blue stripe, timeless colours that convey professionalism and style.

* Flattering slim fit: figure flattering without compromising on comfort.
* Breathable and lightweight fabric: Perfect for everyday work.
* Classic and elegant design: Ideal for projecting a professional image.
* Resistant and easy to care for: Less creasing and easy ironing.
* Colour versatility: Neutral shades to match different uniforms and styles.

Men's version: 260036 LORENZO
