Description

The maxi grille cap has a semi-rigid visor that offers additional protection from sunlight and splashes, which is essential in kitchen environments.

The top of the cap is made with a mesh that provides excellent ventilation, keeping the head cool and comfortable even in the most demanding conditions.

This model is specifically designed for users with voluminous hair, offering a comfortable and secure fit.

The white colour of this cap is stylish and versatile, making it the perfect choice for a professional look in any work environment.

The semi-rigid visor and mesh design provides comfort and protection, which is essential in the kitchen and hospitality industry.

The oversized fit and elastic at the back ensure a comfortable and secure fit for wearers with voluminous hair.
