Description

These unisex, overalls are designed to suit a variety of work environments, from kitchens and restaurants to customer service environments.

The mesh balaclavas feature a cover and bib for full coverage, making them ideal for protecting against splashes and spills in the kitchen.

One size fits all and adjustable with an elasticated neck strap, these balaclavas fit most people, ensuring a comfortable fit.

They are made from high quality, breathable fabric, ensuring you can keep your cool even in the most intense situations.

The cover and bib provide additional protection against spills and splashes, ensuring your clothes and skin stay clean.

The elastic at the back of the neck allows for a customised, comfortable fit so you can work without distractions.

Breathable fabric prevents excess heat and sweat, keeping you cool and comfortable throughout the working day.

Ideal for warehouse or food industry uniforms.
