Description

The short, long-sleeved women's dressing gown in white combines sophistication and comfort. With its semi-fitted design, exposed buttons on the front and darts on the front, this gown fits the professional's figure perfectly.

Made from high quality materials, this gown will stand up to constant wear in demanding work environments. The buttoned cuffs add a touch of class.

The gown is equipped with a left chest pocket and two patch pockets on the waist. This provides enough space to carry essential tools, mobile devices or any necessary items.

The back belt allows for a custom fit, giving you the comfort you need. The lapel collar adds an extra touch of elegance.

Classic white is a timeless choice that reflects cleanliness and professionalism. This colour suits any work environment and is easy to keep clean.

In addition to its elegant design, this coat provides comfort during long working days. The semi-fitted cut allows a wide range of movement.

This gown is suitable for professionals looking to stand out in the workplace while maintaining a professional and polished appearance.

Ideal for uniforms in hospitals, medical centres, clinics and other healthcare professionals or for the cleaning sector.
