Description

The Oporto women's coat offers the perfect balance between style and functionality. With its short-sleeved design and press stud fastening, you'll stay cool and comfortable during your long shifts.

This fitted style, with side panels at the front and back, ensures a professional and neat look without sacrificing comfort.

The coat has a pocket on the left chest, a pocket on the left hip and two overlapping pockets on the right hip. You will have enough space to carry your essential tools and devices.

Made from TWILL 65% PES 35% CO - 200 gr/m², this coat is designed to withstand the demands of a busy work environment and ensure a long service life.

The Oporto women's coat is lightweight and comfortable to wear, allowing you to move easily during your daily tasks. The short sleeves are ideal for keeping you cool, especially in warm working environments.

This coat is designed for healthcare professionals who want to maintain a professional and neat appearance in their working environment without sacrificing comfort.
