Description

The women's long-sleeved white SARGA coat is a garment that combines elegance and functionality. Its long sleeves and button fastening provide a professional and neat look.

This semi-fitted basic model features darts at the front and back, along with a back belt, ensuring a comfortable, tailored fit.

With a left chest pocket and two patch pockets on the waist, you'll have plenty of room to carry your essential tools and devices.

Made from high quality materials, this gown is designed to withstand the demands of the busy healthcare work environment and offer a long service life.

It offers long working day comfort and exceptional durability. Its buttoned cuffs and lapel collar add a stylish touch to its functionality.

This gown is the perfect choice for healthcare professionals who wish to maintain a professional and neat appearance, without compromising on comfort.

Ideal for hospital, clinic, medical centre, pharmacy, laboratory and other healthcare professional uniforms, or for veterinary, cleaning or commercial use.

Model replaced by reference number: 540101.
