Description

The Della Women's Ribbed Sleeve Blouse combines functionality and design to offer maximum comfort in the workplace. Made from 95% PES 5% EA MICROFIBRE 360 - 170 g/m², it is lightweight, breathable and allows freedom of movement, ideal for intense working days.

Its semi-fitted design adapts to the silhouette without compromising on comfort. It stands out for its crossover closure (right over left when worn), with the first button visible and the rest hidden, giving it a clean and elegant finish. It also features ribbing on the sides and sleeves, improving elasticity and fit.

For added comfort, the garment includes darts on the chest, promoting an ergonomic fit and a more flattering cut. With an approximate length of 65 cm, it is a versatile option for different professional sectors.

Available colours:
Black (C/001) | White (C/101) | Navy (C/104) | Sand (C/142) | Khaki green (C/149)

Matching trousers: 704800.
