Description

Give your work uniform a fresh, colourful update with the KENIA women's blouse, a garment that fuses fashion, sustainability and practicality in one design. With a semi-fitted cut (M2) of 75 cm in length, this blouse is designed for all-day comfort without compromising on style.

Made from vichy bamboo (60% organic cotton, 20% recycled polyester, 20% conventional polyester), it is soft, lightweight and has a smaller environmental footprint. The vichy orange colour adds vibrancy, while the front and back yoke with sublimated design and graphic detail pockets offer a unique, characterful finish.

It features front darts for a flattering fit, a front zip fastening for practicality, and a decorative button placket at the neckline, adding a delicate and elegant detail. In addition, the back detail is designed to be personalised, making it an ideal choice for work teams looking to differentiate themselves.
