Description

The MARC blouse from Gary's Uniforms is a professional garment designed to offer comfort, lightness and timeless style. Designed for sectors such as healthcare, wellness, beauty and reception, it stands out for its functional, clean and flattering design.

Made from SOREMA fabric (53% recycled polyester, 47% organic polyester, 108 g/m²), this blouse is lightweight, breathable and sustainable, ideal for professionals who value both image and environmental commitment.

Its design incorporates a mandarin collar with a V-neckline for a modern touch, as well as a front closure with concealed buttons for a polished finish. The darts at the back improve the fit without compromising on roominess, thanks to its loose H3 pattern. The two side pockets add functionality for everyday use.

With an approximate length of 75 cm, this garment is designed for complete freedom and style at work.
