Description

The LAIA blouse from Uniformes Gary's combines contemporary design, functionality and sustainability in a professional garment that is ideal for sectors such as beauty, healthcare, wellness and pharmacy. Its modern style, together with recycled materials and careful details, make it a perfect choice for everyday work.

Made from 54% recycled microfibre and 46% recycled polyester (145 g/m²), this blouse is lightweight, breathable, quick-drying and very easy to care for.

The design includes a box neck, three-quarter sleeves with an elegant faux roll-up detail with a fixed button, and an asymmetrical closure with visible buttons, which adds a distinctive and modern touch. The darts on the chest and the ribbed back panels ensure a good fit without compromising freedom of movement.

With an approximate length of 66 cm and a semi-fitted M2 cut, the LAIA blouse offers the perfect balance between a professional look and comfort.
