Description

The Candela long-sleeved blouse for women combines functional design, technical comfort and professional aesthetics. Its modern mandarin collar, semi-fitted cut (M2) and technical MICROFIBRE 100% PES - 148 g/m² fabric make this garment an ideal choice for demanding environments such as clinics, pharmacies, hospitals, nursing homes or beauty salons.

Designed to offer a polished look without sacrificing practicality, it features a central closure with concealed press studs, yoke at the front and back, and back side panels with Air Dry technology, which improves ventilation and thermal comfort during the working day.

It has three front pockets for added functionality, allowing accessories, medical supplies or work tools to be stored safely and accessibly.

Available colours:
White (C/101)

Matching trousers: 700600.
Men's version: 600128.
