Description

The Liam men's blouse is designed for professionals looking for a functional, comfortable garment with a modern design. Its funnel neck with V-neckline gives it a distinctive and elegant touch, ideal for healthcare, beauty or customer service environments.

Made from MICROFIBRE 100% PES - 148 g/m², this blouse stands out for being breathable, antibacterial, quick-drying and non-iron, which makes it easy to care for and prolongs its durability. Its semi-fitted M2 cut and rear side panels with Air Dry technology ensure an ergonomic fit and greater freshness throughout the day.

The central inverted zip fastening offers a clean and secure finish. It also features side slits and three front pockets, perfect for keeping everything you need for your professional routine close at hand.

Available colours:
White (C/101)

Matching trousers: 700600.
