Description

The Luisa women's healthcare blouse combines elegant design, freedom of movement and functionality for everyday professional wear. With a mandarin collar and trapezoid neckline, this sleeveless garment is perfect for those looking for a lightweight and comfortable option without compromising on style.

Made from MICROFIBRE 100% PES - 148 g/m², a highly functional technical fabric: breathable, antibacterial, resistant to chlorine splashes, quick-drying and non-iron, ideal for healthcare environments, clinics, beauty salons and other professional sectors.

Its semi-fitted cut (M2) enhances the silhouette while maintaining comfort. It features front and back side panels that enhance the fit, a central zip with double pull for added practicality and 2 front pockets to keep essentials close at hand.

Available colours:
Black (C/001)

Matching trousers: 700600.
