Description

Discover the elegance and functionality of the Ferran Men's Jacket, designed for professionals looking for a distinctive style in healthcare and work environments. This long sleeved jacket features a fashionable mao collar, two front pockets, hook-and-eye cuffs and concealed press stud fastening. The semi-fitted garment, with back darts, offers a flattering and comfortable fit.

Made from 100% polyester MICROFIBRA, an anti-bacterial and highly breathable fabric, the jacket is resistant to splashes of bleach diluted in water, washable at 90° and dries quickly. Available in black or white with an original glasses print on the collar and pockets, this coat is ideal for professionals in opticians' surgeries, medical centres and clinics.

Complete your outfit with the matching model for women (ref. 660500).
