Description

Discover the elegance and comfort of the Germán Men's Jacket, designed with the needs of healthcare professionals and other work sectors in mind. This short-sleeved jacket features a fashionable V-neck, front yoke and two front pockets that combine style and functionality. Loose fitting and comfortable, the garment features back darts for a flattering fit.

Made in X.Linen (65% Polyester - 30% Viscose - 5% Elastane), an innovative fabric that combines the look of linen with stretch properties. Available in aqua green or beige, with matching details on the collar and pocket mouth, this coat offers breathability and a soft feel.

Ideal as a uniform for nurses, doctors and other healthcare professionals in hospitals, clinics and medical centres. It is also perfect for use in pharmacies or retail outlets. The Germán Men's Jacket comes with a complementary model for women (reference 662300). Elevate your professional image with Germán's distinctive style.
