Description

The Women's Agate Elastik Blouse redefines the standard in healthcare fashion. In short sleeves, with a V-neck and a fitted design, this jacket combines style and functionality.

Made from 99% Polyester and 1% Elastane MICROFIBER ELASTIK, it offers a unique experience: maximum freedom of movement, antibacterial properties and high breathability.

Two front patch pockets and an invisible pocket on the left chest provide practicality without compromising on style.

The 90° washable, quick-drying, non-ironing top is ideal for healthcare professionals in hospitals, clinics, pharmacies and more.

Also available in men's model reference 613200.
