Description

Discover elegance and functionality with the Gloria Women's Blouse, designed for healthcare professionals looking for comfort without sacrificing style.

The 100% polyester MICROFIBRE construction guarantees antibacterial properties, high breathability and resistance to splashes of bleach diluted in water.

With short sleeves, mao collar and two side pockets, this jacket offers a semi-fitted, figure-flattering fit with strategic back darts and front side panels.

The front zip adds practicality, and the grey and white eyewear print adds a modern touch. Ideal for opticians, medical centres and clinics, this garment is completed with grey piping on the pockets. Discover innovation in uniforms also in the men's model reference 616600.
