Description

Explore the stylish ERICA WOMAN'S BLouse, an outstanding choice in health and workwear designed especially for professionals in the healthcare and food industry.

This short-sleeved jacket features a fashionable V-neck and two side pockets, offering practicality without compromising on style. Its semi-fitted cut, with darts on the chest and side seams on the front and back, provides a flattering silhouette.

Made of 100% polyester MICROFIBRE, it ensures antibacterial resistance, high breathability and resistant to splashes of bleach diluted in water.

The navy coloured main fabric is complemented by COOLMAX printed details on the sides, neck and back, adding a modern touch. Ideal for uniforms in hospitals, clinics, pharmacies and more.

Also available in men's model (ref. 616800).
