Description

Experience the perfect balance of comfort and style with the Naomi Women's Blouse, a garment designed to meet the demands of healthcare professionals. This short-sleeved jacket features a refined V-neckline and a practical pocket on the right side, adding functionality to your everyday uniform. The semi-fitted cut, combined with the front seams and chest darts, provides a flattering fit that elegantly accentuates your figure. The back features adjustable straps that allow you to customise the fit and create a ruched effect to suit your preferences.

Made in white SARGA and highlighted with striped vichy detailing on the collar and sleeve cuffs, this blouse is the ideal choice for healthcare professionals in hospitals, clinics, medical centres, veterinary or cleaning services.

Discover excellence in uniforms with the Naomi Blouse, where functionality and elegance meet.
