Description

The Microfibre Maternity Trousers are the perfect choice for pregnant women looking for comfort, softness and freedom of movement without compromising on professional style. Designed in lightweight microfibre (100% polyester – 148 g/m²), these trousers offer breathability, durability and easy care, ideal for everyday wear. Fabric resistant to diluted bleach splashes.

Thanks to their elasticated waistband with elastic, buttonholes and double ribbed fabric, they adapt to the changes in your body during pregnancy, providing a snug fit and support without constricting. Their two French-cut front pockets add practicality and functionality.

Available colours:
Black (C/001) | White (C/101)

Matching blouse: 600117.
