Description

The Men's Extended Waist Trousers are designed for optimum fit, long-lasting comfort and impeccable appearance in the workplace. Made of bi-elastic marl fabric (96% polyester, 4% elastane, 185 gr/m²), it guarantees elasticity in both directions, facilitating mobility and ensuring high resistance to wear and tear.

The semi-fitted design gives a slim silhouette without compromising on comfort. The side extension at the waistband allows for a custom fit, ensuring greater support and adaptability to different body types. It also has two french pockets on the sides, providing functionality and practicality for everyday wear.

Available in two stylish and versatile shades, navy and sand, these trousers are the perfect choice for those looking for a balance between professionalism, comfort and modern design.

* Two-way stretch marl fabric for flexibility and strength.
* Semi-fitted design, comfortable and flattering.
* Side waistband extension for a personalised fit.
* Two French pockets, functional and practical.
* Available in navy and sand colours, ideal for any professional environment.

Women's version: 700063. Black colour: 700072. Tailoring Collection.
