Description

Discover the Twill Inner Drawstring+Rubber Trousers, an exceptional choice designed for professionals in the healthcare and food industry. This unisex, regular-fit model stands out for its comfort and functionality, with an elasticated waistband that incorporates elastic and drawstring for a custom fit. It also features a concealed pocket sewn on the right hip, providing additional practicality.

Made from durable SARGA in either white or navy, these trousers are especially suitable for the food processing industry, production and handling chains. However, its versatility makes it an ideal choice for healthcare.

Experience the perfect combination of comfort and performance with the Twill Inner Drawstring Pants.
