Description

Comfort and style in the White Twill Health Trousers with Pockets. Designed to meet the needs of healthcare professionals, these trousers feature a regular fit, perfect for both men and women, offering versatility in the work environment.

The half elastic at the back waist ensures a comfortable and flexible fit, complemented by the secure and easy fastening provided by the zip and button. Two French hip pockets allow you to carry small items essential for everyday work, providing practicality and functionality.

Made from white twill, this hardwearing and durable fabric ensures a garment that stands up to daily wear and tear, maintaining its quality over time. These trousers are ideal for nursing professionals, doctors and other workers in medical environments, as well as those in the hospitality, kitchen, cleaning, hairdressing, beauty, spa and retail sectors.

Available in a range of colours, including 773000 and 773300, these trousers allow you to customise your team's uniform to suit your preferences. Order today and give your staff the comfort and style they need in their working environment.
