Description

These trousers have a regular fit for comfort and freedom of movement during long working days. The half elasticated back waistband and belt loops allow for a secure and comfortable fit.

The zip and button at the front make the trousers easy to put on and take off, ensuring a secure closure.

There are two French hip pockets, ideal for carrying small items or essential tools while working.

These trousers are made from houndstooth vichy, a classic and attractive fabric that is known for its durability and versatile style.

This model is especially popular with chefs and hospitality staff due to its classic design and ability to withstand the demands of the work environment.

The houndstooth trousers with belt loops are a reliable workwear item that combines elegance and functionality. Whether you run a restaurant, hotel, pub or other hospitality related business, these trousers give you the comfort and style you need to carry out your work with confidence. Order today and give your team the quality workwear they deserve.
