Description

These regular-fit unisex trousers are designed for comfort during long working days. The absence of darts in the design provides a looser, more relaxed fit, which is essential for the mobility required in the workplace.

The zip and button on the front of the trousers ensure a secure and easy to use closure. This feature is especially important for those who need to dress quickly in an active work environment.

The trousers have two French pockets on the sides, ideal for carrying small items such as pens, notepads or mobile devices. In addition, there is a back welt pocket that adds extra functionality.

The 100% PE fabric used in the construction of the trousers offers excellent stretch, allowing for a wider range of movement and additional comfort for those who are constantly on the move in their work environment.
