Description

The regular fit of these trousers is suitable for both men and women, offering all-day comfort and mobility.

The zip and button fastening provides a secure fit, while belt loops allow you to wear belts for added comfort.

With two French pockets on the sides and a welt pocket on the back, these trousers offer ample storage space for small work essentials.

The 100% polyester microfibre construction is an outstanding feature of these trousers. This fabric is water repellent, highly breathable and antibacterial, making it resistant to splashes of bleach diluted in water.
