Description

These trousers offer a regular fit, which fits comfortably without being too tight or baggy, providing a professional and stylish look.

The trousers feature a zip and button front for secure fastening, as well as belt loops for a custom fit. There are two French pockets on the sides, a watch pocket for functionality and a back welt pocket for larger items. The trousers have no darts on the front for a clean, traditional look.

These trousers are made from 100% recycled polyester microfibre, making them an environmentally friendly garment. Part of Uniformes Gary's NATUREWEAR range, which is committed to sustainability and waste reduction.

Ideal for waiters in the hotel and catering industry, as well as for reception, office, transport and retail staff. Its classic design and microfibre fabric make it suitable for a variety of work situations.

These trousers not only offer comfort and style in the workplace, but also demonstrate a commitment to sustainability through their recycled fabric - make a difference to your work team with this stylish and sustainable garment!
