Description

The blazer features a slim-fit design that enhances the masculine figure, offering a modern and elegant look. The two buttons on the front add a touch of timeless sophistication to the garment.

Made from KNITSUIT fabric, which is composed of 56% cotton, 32% polyester and 12% wool, this jacket offers a perfect blend of softness and durability. The fabric is breathable and comfortable, allowing the garment to be worn for long working days without sacrificing comfort.

The jacket has a full lining that enhances the garment's durability and provides added comfort. This lining allows the garment to slide smoothly over other layers of clothing, preventing uncomfortable rubbing against the skin.

Marengo colour details are detailed in marengo colour, which adds a touch of elegance and distinction to the overall design of the jacket.

The garment has an inside pocket on the right front with buttonhole fastening and two inside pockets on the left front, one of which has a button. These pockets provide additional space for personal items or work tools.

Its sophisticated design makes it an essential garment for men who want to maintain a professional image and be comfortable during their working day.
