Description

This blazer features a modern, slim-fit design with two buttons down the front. The slim fit provides a flattering, contemporary look.

Made from WELFARE fabric, which consists of 53% polyester, 44% wool and 3% elastane, this jacket offers an ideal combination of softness, warmth and stretch.

The jacket features an inside right front pocket with a buttonhole fastening, ideal for storing personal items or essential work tools. In addition, there are two inside pockets on the left front, one of which is buttoned for added security.

The sleeve lapel buttonholes and lapel buttonhole are light blue in colour, adding a touch of style and elegance to the garment without being overpowering.

The garment features a centre back seam and two slits at the back, which facilitates movement and adds a touch of style. The sides are finished with bias binding for durability.

The jacket closes front left over right, a classic detail that adds sophistication to the garment.

This blazer is versatile and suitable for a variety of industries and work environments, including hospitality, reception, transportation, office and general retail.
