Description

GASTROCHEF unisex jacket with long sleeves, mao collar, side zip fastening and left sleeve pocket. Semi-fitted model.

Made with T400 fibre, a marvel of textile technology. This elastic fibre guarantees a perfect fit and a return to its original shape in all directions, which means that every movement you make in the kitchen will be carried out with maximum comfort and freedom. In addition, T400 fibre provides incredible tactile comfort, crease resistance and ease of care, ensuring you look impeccable at all times.
It is ideal for cooks and chefs in hospitality, catering and general cooking.

It features COOLMAX pique fabric panels across the back, a feature that transcends aesthetics. These technical panels not only keep you cool and comfortable by regulating body temperature and moisture, but also give you a sense of freshness and well-being as you work in the kitchen.
