Description

GASTROCHEF unisex jacket with mao collar, long sleeves, concealed press stud fastening and left breast pocket. Semi-fitted model.

Fuses craftsmanship and innovation by combining different fabrics of exceptional quality. The main fabric is a SARGA composed of 65% cotton (CO), 35% lyocell (CLY) and 2% elastane (EA), which provide durability, softness and an impeccable fit. The sleeves and back are made of INTERLOCK fabric, a combination of 92% polyester (PES) and 8% elastane (EA), ensuring unrestricted mobility. COOLMAX pique panels on the armholes provide coolness and comfort with every movement.

It features innovative TENCEL and INTERLOCK water repellent fabric technology. These fabrics work together to prevent moisture and seepage, allowing you to stay cool at all times. They also have antibacterial and biocidal properties that act as a protective barrier against viruses and bacteria, preventing unpleasant odours and ensuring a hygienic environment.

It is ideal for cooks and chefs in the hotel, catering and general kitchen.
