Description

GASTROCHEF unisex jacket with long sleeves, mao collar, central fastening with concealed press studs. Semi-fitted model.

Made with the innovative T400 fibre, a marvel of textile technology. This elastic fibre guarantees a perfect fit and shape recovery in all directions, which means that every movement you make in the kitchen will be comfortable and unrestricted. In addition, T400 fibre provides unrivalled comfort, exceptional crease resistance and easy care so you'll always look your best.

It features COOLMAX pique panels on the sides of the back and sleeves, a detail that transcends aesthetics. These technical panels work tirelessly to keep your body temperature regulated and manage moisture, keeping you cool and comfortable while you cook.

It is ideal for cooks and chefs in hospitality, catering and general cooking.
