Description

GASTROCHEF unisex long-sleeved jacket, with a mandarin collar, central closure with hidden press-studs and a pocket on the left sleeve. Semi fitted model.

Made with 100% polyester microfiber (PES), a fabric that represents a significant advance in culinary apparel. Microfiber offers a unique combination of characteristics that go beyond the ordinary: it is highly breathable, resistant to splashes of bleach diluted in water and dries quickly. In addition, its antibacterial property provides a hygienic and safe environment for your work in the kitchen.

Back made of COOLMAX pique fabric, strategically designed to offer you a sensation of freshness and constant comfort. This technical fabric works diligently to regulate temperature and manage moisture, allowing you to stay cool while creating memorable culinary masterpieces.

It is ideal for cooks and chefs in hotels, restaurants and cooking in general.
