Description

The Unisex Kitchen Jacket Combi Canalé Tactical combines functionality, comfort and innovative design to offer maximum performance in the gastronomic environment. Made from 360º microfibre (95% polyester, 5% elastane, 170 gr/m²), it is a lightweight, breathable and quick-drying garment, ideal for long days in the kitchen.

The design features concealed press studs for a clean and stylish finish, along with a mao collar for a modern and sophisticated touch. The ribbed back provides added stretch and freedom of movement. In addition, it has turned-up cuffs, allowing the sleeve to be adjusted to suit the wearer's needs.

Equipped with two functional pockets (one on the combined chest and the other on the left sleeve), it is practical for storing essential tools. Its combined fabric construction on the sides, yoke and pockets provides a differentiated and avant-garde design.

Available in sand, a versatile and stylish option for kitchen professionals looking for comfort without compromising on style.
