Description

The Unisex COMBI Canalé RUBIO Unisex Kitchen Jacket is a technical garment designed to offer maximum thermal comfort, freedom of movement and a modern look in professional gastronomic environments. Ideal for chefs and kitchen staff looking for performance, freshness and style.

Made from COOL DRY technical fabric (95% polyester, 5% elastane - 120 gr/m²), this jacket is lightweight, breathable and quick-drying, making it a perfect choice for high-performance kitchens. Semi-fitted design (H2) for style without compromising mobility.

It features stretch ribbing on the back for a more ergonomic fit, structure-enhancing back yoke and back seams, and a roll-up sleeve with roll-up option, ideal for adapting to the pace of everyday work. The exposed first button and hidden buttons add a modern, stylish touch, while chest and sleeve pockets enhance functionality without breaking up the design.

Available in four versatile colours - white, black, navy and grey - to easily match any professional uniform.

* COOL DRY technical fabric: breathable, lightweight and quick-drying
* Semi-fitted design that adapts to the body without restricting movement
* Elastic ribbing on the back for greater comfort and dynamic fit
* Roll-up sleeve, ideal for intense kitchen work
* First button visible + concealed fastening, modern and professional aesthetics
* Functional pockets on chest and sleeve
* Available in white, black, navy and grey, neutral colours for all styles

Optimise your image in the kitchen with a technical, ergonomic jacket with a modern design.
