Description

The jacket is designed to fit the male anatomy and features long sleeves that provide coverage and protection in the kitchen environment.

The crossover fastening with dummy buttons is a distinctive feature of this jacket. The buttons are available in a wide range of colours, allowing you to customise the look of the garment.

The jacket includes a pocket on the left chest, providing practical storage space for small kitchen utensils or essential tools.

The loose-fitting design of the jacket, together with the back seam, ensures a comfortable fit and allows ample freedom of movement during kitchen tasks.

The jacket is made from twill fabric, known for its durability and strength. It also features AEROSILVER detailing in the armhole area, which helps maintain a cool, moisture-controlled feel in a warm, active environment.

Buttons are not included, allowing wearers to further customise their jacket with dummy buttons in the colour of their choice.

The NIZA men's kitchen jacket is a versatile and functional choice for cooks and chefs looking for a high quality garment that meets the demands of kitchen work.
