Description

The MARCOS unisex kitchen jacket features a unisex design that suits men and women alike. The mao collar and crossover fastening with concealed press studs add a touch of elegance to the garment.

The long roll-up sleeves with hook-and-eye fastening allow you to adjust the sleeve length to suit your preference, making the garment versatile.

The buttoned cuffs and semi-fitted garment ensure comfort and freedom of movement, essential for those working in the hospitality industry.

The jacket is made of 100% cotton denim, a high quality material that provides comfort and durability, even in demanding work environments.

The absence of pockets contributes to a clean, professional look, while the side panels on the front and back add a touch of style to the garment.

The MARCOS kitchen jacket is ideal for uniforms for your team of waiters, cooks and chefs in restaurants, catering, and the general trade. It combines the elegance of a classic design with the comfort needed to cope with the daily demands of hospitality work. The high quality denim and carefully thought out details make this jacket an investment that will stand the test of time.
