Description

The unisex MADERAS jacket offers an attractive and versatile design, suitable for both men and women. The crossover fastening with concealed press studs ensures a neat and tidy look.

Made from 100% cotton SARGA, this jacket offers the comfort and breathability that are essential in the hospitality world. The fabric is strong and durable, ideal for constant wear.

The turn-up cuffs and semi-fitted cut of the jacket ensure that your staff can move with ease and comfort while performing their duties.

The jacket features a wood print design, adding a touch of nature and originality to your uniform. This unique design allows your staff to stand out in the work environment.

The back armholes feature AEROSILVER technical fabric, which provides antibacterial properties to maintain a hygienic working environment.

The MADERAS kitchen jacket is perfect for uniforms for your team in restaurants, bars, hotels and any hospitality environment. It offers a unique combination of style and functionality.

This jacket combines the best of both worlds: an attractive, natural design with the functionality essential in the hospitality industry.
