Description

The SILVA unisex kitchen jacket features a unisex design that suits a wide range of hospitality professionals, including cooks, chefs, waiters and mêtres. Its turn-up cuffs and concealed press stud fastening add a touch of elegance to the garment.

This jacket offers a semi-fitted fit that allows optimal freedom of movement, which is essential in an active kitchen environment. The garment is comfortable and flattering thanks to its well thought-out design.

The SILVA unisex kitchen jacket is made of diamond-shaped CHAMBRAY (70% cotton - 30% polyester) in an attractive charcoal grey colour. This hard-wearing material is perfect for withstanding the daily demands in the kitchen. It also features AEROSILVER technical fabric throughout the back for breathability and comfort.

The jacket is designed with the needs of hospitality professionals in mind. The pocket on the left sleeve is ideal for storing small work utensils, and the concealed press stud closure provides a stylish look while keeping you cool and comfortable.

The SILVA unisex kitchen jacket combines style and performance in one design. You don't have to sacrifice fashion for comfort, as this jacket offers both qualities in one exceptional garment. Stand up to the demands of the kitchen while keeping you looking professional and stylish.
