Description

The jacket features long sleeves that provide extra protection for children while they engage in activities that can get messy, such as cooking or crafting.

The Mao collar is a stylish detail that adds authenticity to the jacket's design while providing comfort.

The button fastening across the front is easy to fasten and unfasten, allowing children to put on and take off the jacket independently.

The white colour is classic and versatile, making this jacket suitable for a wide variety of activities and events.

In addition to the jacket, the matching apron and hat can also be purchased to complete the chef's outfit, adding a playful and authentic element to the children's learning experience.

For those looking for additional colour options, an alternative reference is offered with other colours available.
