Description

The mao collar adds a touch of sophistication to the jacket, which is essential in the hospitality industry where image and presentation are paramount.

Equipped with a left chest pocket and two side pockets, this jacket offers space to store essentials while keeping you organised and presentable.

The central fastening with concealed press studs ensures a clean, uninterrupted look, which is ideal for hospitality staff who need to maintain an impeccable image.

The semi-fitted cut, with darts at the chest and side panels, enhances the figure without sacrificing comfort. It is important for hospitality professionals to feel comfortable during their working day.

Made from 100% polyester SARGA, this jacket is durable and wear resistant, making it suitable for everyday use in hospitality environments.

The ARCAS jacket is suitable for a variety of roles in the hospitality industry, from waiters to chefs. Its stylish design makes it a versatile choice.

The ARCAS jacket combines style and functionality, making it the ideal choice for professionals working in the hospitality industry. Whether you need a jacket for your wait staff or kitchen staff, this garment ensures a polished and professional image in your business.

Also available for women reference 963700.
