Description

This waistcoat features a country-inspired design with grey stripes, adding a rustic and traditional touch. The dinner jacket collar adds an element of sophistication.

Equipped with two welt pockets, the waistcoat allows waiters to conveniently carry small items or take order notes.

The semi-fitted model ensures comfort and freedom of movement while performing service tasks. The fit is versatile enough to adapt to a wide variety of silhouettes.

Made from 50% Polyester and 50% Viscose PLANA, this waistcoat is durable and resistant to the demands of the hospitality environment. The grey stripes and black piping create a stylish and attractive combination.

Suitable for waiters, chefs and other hospitality professionals, this waistcoat adds a distinctive touch to your team's attire. It is an ideal choice for businesses that want to stand out and differentiate themselves in a competitive market.

The CAMPERO waiter waistcoat is the perfect choice for restaurant, bar, hotel and other hospitality owners looking to add a rustic and distinctive touch to their business image. This waistcoat suits a variety of settings, from restaurants with rural charm to modern and elegant venues.

Also available for women reference 993300.
